Monmouth University Library Research Awards

Purpose

The Library Research Awards program recognizes Monmouth University undergraduate and graduate students who demonstrate extraordinary skill and creativity in the application of library and information resources to research papers completed in fulfillment of a course requirement. In addition to rewarding successful information literacy achievements by students, these awards will also highlight and promote the Library’s resources and services to the Monmouth community.

The awards, sponsored by the Monmouth University Library Association, will be presented as one winning award for each category – undergraduate and graduate students.

Eligibility

- Individuals currently enrolled as undergraduate and graduate students at Monmouth University. All class levels and disciplines are eligible.
- Projects must be nominated by a faculty member and fulfill the requirements of a Monmouth course.
- Projects must contain an element of library research. The use of primary and/or secondary literature to support a thesis must be present.

Application Procedure & Deadline

When preparing the application package, please include:

- Application cover sheet and checklist.
- Nomination form from the faculty member teaching the course for which the research was conducted.
- A 100 word abstract/summary of the research project.
- A 500-750 word essay describing research strategies and application of library tools and resources in completion of the project (see evaluation criteria chart).
- A final version of the research project; papers should be approximately 8 -20 pages long.
- A bibliography of sources consulted.

Application Period: November 3, 2008 – Monday, March 23, 2009 5:00PM
Winner notification: April 3, 2009
Student Awards Reception: April, 2009

Submit completed application package to:
Library Research Award Committee
Eleonora Dubicki, Assistant Librarian
Monmouth University Library
400 Cedar Avenue
West Long Branch, New Jersey 07764
E-mail an electronic copy of the final research report and bibliography or source list to Eleonora Dubicki, Assistant Librarian, edubicki@monmouth.edu

Applications must be complete; incomplete applications or late applications will not be considered. Winning projects will be posted on the library’s website.

Evaluation Criteria

Successful projects will:

- Make extensive, creative use of library services, resources, and collections in any format.
- Exhibit the ability to select, evaluate, and synthesize library resources and to successfully use them in the creation of the research paper.
- Show evidence of significant personal learning and development of research skills.
- The essay describing research techniques used will be given the most weight in the judging process. The essay should demonstrate the applicant’s: identification of sources consulted, description of searching process, and evidence of learning.

Submissions will be judged on a 15-point scale. Up to five points will be awarded for each of three categories:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sources Consulted (0-5 points)</th>
<th>Description of Searching Process (0-5 points)</th>
<th>Evidence of Learning (0-5 points)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>What library services or tools were used—reference assistance, ILL, library workshops, research guides?</td>
<td>Was a thesis statement clearly articulated for the assignment?</td>
<td>Did the student articulate what was learned during the process?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Were a variety of sources used? (print, electronic, primary, secondary, books, articles, scholarly, popular)</td>
<td>Were keywords identified to find materials?</td>
<td>Did the student describe changes in searching behavior when confronted with inadequate results?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Were sources appropriate /sufficient for the assignment?</td>
<td>Were search strategies modified to narrow down or broaden search results?</td>
<td>Did the student learn anything new about the library that was not known before?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Were sources credible and authoritative?</td>
<td>Did the student modify the search statement along the way, based on search results?</td>
<td>Did the student express increasing confidence in the research abilities during the course of this process?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Were sources cited appropriately and consistently within a specific style?</td>
<td>How did the student determine which were the best resources?</td>
<td>Did the student express how describing this process might help them in future coursework?</td>
</tr>

Evaluation Committee

A three-person panel composed of 2 Monmouth University librarians and a member of the sponsoring Library Association will judge entries on the evidence of the applicant's research strategy, process, and personal learning, as shown in the paper and summarized in the research essay. Expectations for achievement will be commensurate with the applicant's class year and the requirements of the discipline.

Award Notification

Winners will be notified no later than April 3, 2009. The Award recipient will receive a $250 gift card and certificate presented at the Student Awards Reception, be featured on a "READ" poster in the library, and publicized in the Library Newsletter.

Acknowledgements
