

Around Campus

QUESTION: If you were Pres. Johnson, what would you do to help bring about a settlement or end to the Vietnam Crisis?

BARRY SCHINDELHEIM

Junior

New York City

"The troops should retreat to a certain boundary and make a stand fighting a defensive war. Stop bombing."

DENISE BRADLEY

Freshman

Sommerville

"God forbid, I should be President Johnson. I would wipe them all out, the hell with procrastination."

DONNA SPITZ

Freshman

West Long
Branch

"I would stay there and finish it out."

TRAVIS McSHAIN

Senior

Fairhaven

"Call for a question the next election. Ask the opinion of the public and go by that."

JAMES STRUNK

Sophomore

Washington,
N.J.

"I would increase the bombing of North Vietnam including Hanoi and would use nuclear weapons."

ANN PAULING

Freshman

Ocean City

"I would try to find a peaceful settlement by getting the heads of all parties together."

