

If Spock were chastised...

Dear Editor,

I wonder if this was a real conservative campus and Dr. Spock (who is a convicted criminal) came to speak and the John Birchers, hard hats and other groups came to the auditorium and teered him to the point that he could not speak. These people yell, you-----war criminal, you've encouraged the Viet Cong to prolong the war by showing that there is support in this country thus causing many Americans to lose their life "you----murder.

Now you're a moderate to liberal student and you came to hear Dr. Spock. Don't you think his right to free speech was violated. Don't say that there is a difference between this and Maxwell Taylor. The difference is they have opposing political views.
